‘NAUGHTY TORY IN BUM-GRAB BID’

A WOMAN broke down in court as she described being chased around the home of former Conservative MP Charlie Elphicke after he groped her, chanting “I’m a naughty Tory”.

The woman, who cannot be identified for legal reasons, said it felt like Elphicke was “racing” her around his home in central London, in 2007, trying to grab her bottom.

The alleged victim had rejected Elphicke’s advances moments earlier as they shared a £40 bottle of wine, with the politician’s children asleep upstairs and his wife, Natalie Elphicke, away on business.

Giving evidence at via video-link, the woman told Southwark Crown Court she found it “odd” when Elphicke began asking her about her sexual preferences.

She said: “He started talking about what we (the alleged victim and her boyfriend) liked in a sexual way. I sort of wagged my finger at him and said ‘We don’t need to talk about that kind of thing’.

“He started saying ‘Do you like silk and leather?’ and bondage. I was just thinking ‘Oh God, how embarrassing’.”

She said the conversation continued for “a couple of sentences” before he “basically jumped” on her, the court heard.

She said: “He tried to kiss me and I moved my head, he pushed me down by my shoulders, he had his knee between my legs and he was groping my breast.

“I was just shocked – really, really shocked. He was trying to grope me and trying to grab my bum.”

The witness told jurors she managed to get away and into a taxi.

Elphicke denies three counts of sexual assault against two women, between 2007 and 2016.

The trial continues.

Care home quip Boris ‘a coward’

BORIS Johnson has been criticised for saying “too many care homes didn’t really follow the procedures” during the coronavirus outbreak.

The prime minister was responding to the head of NHS England’s call for reform in social care within a year.

Mr Johnson said it was “important to fund” the sector, but it needed to be “properly organised and supported”.

Mark Adams, boss of charity Community Integrated Care, said the PM’s comments were “cowardly”.

In an interview he said: “But to be honest with you, if this is genuinely his view, I think we’re almost entering a Kafkaesque alternative reality where the government sets the rules, we follow them, they don’t like the results, they then deny setting the rules and blame the people that were trying to do their best.”

One-in-seven to be jobless

NEARLY one in seven people in the UK might be unemployed by the end of this year if a second wave of the pandemic washes over the country.

The Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development said the UK’s unemployment rate could reach 14.8 per cent as its experts warned that global job losses could take unemployment rates to 1930s levels.

But even without a second wave of infections, the UK unemployment rate is likely to reach a record high of up to 11.7 per cent by the end of this year, the OECD said.

Guard to stand over suicide-risk Ghislaine while she sits on loo

PRISONER CELL PLOP H

NONCE AND PAL: Epstein and Ghislaine, who’s in nick

By COLIN HURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

A BURLY female prison guard will stand over Ghislaine Maxwell while she has a SHIT, jail sources have confirmed.

Accused Jeffrey Epstein ‘pimp’ Maxwell was quietly transferred on Monday from New Hampshire to a federal prison in New York where she’ll await trial pending a bail hearing.

And prison bosses – terrified she’ll commit suicide like her late lover Epstein – have that decreed she’ll be watched 24 hours a day, even when she curls one off.

Maxwell, who was arrested in a swanky rural mansion last week, was moved by cops to the Metropolitan Detention Center (MDC) in Sunset Park, Brooklyn.

The former socialite and daughter of the late British media crook Robert Maxwell faces charges on four counts of sex trafficking minors and two counts of perjury for allegedly acting as Epstein’s fixer as he sexually abused underage girls.

Epstein was arrested for sex-trafficking by the same US Attorney’s Office last year — but topped himself in his lower Manhattan jail cell before he could face trial.

A law-enforcement source said that prison officials at the MDC in Brooklyn are determined to avoid a similar outcome with Maxwell.

The source shuddered: “Everyone knows that Ghislaine Maxwell is a suicide risk and is also a person who various personages would like to silence – for good. We cannot take any chances and if that means a guard standing over her while she takes a dump, so be it.”

Her first court appearance could be on Thursday, according to reportss in New York.

Hearing

She’ll remain locked up at the MDC until the hearing, when a judge will determine if she’ll stay behind bars until her trial or be granted bail.

She’s accused of enticing three underage girls to meet Epstein at his various properties in New York, New Mexico and in London.

Maxwell is also charged with two counts of perjury for allegedly lying during a formal deposition, but prosecutors have kept open the door for her to cut a plea deal and cooperate against other unidentified accomplices.

Epstein allegedly sexually abused all three of the girls, including one who was abused by both Maxwell and the millionaire financier at the same time, according to the indictment.

Earlier this week a former friend of Maxwell said it was probable she had videos and documents that could implicate a number of high profile former pals of Epstein.

The pal said: “If Ghislaine goes down, she’s going to take the whole damn lot of them with her. Some of them are probably shitting themselves.”

One of Maxwell’s closest friends is Prince Andrew, who strongly denies all allegations of noncery.

Stamp Duty cut will not be delayed

RISHI Sunak will not delay a stamp duty cut slated for his mini Budget today after warnings that the housing market would be wrecked for months.

The Chancellor’s crucial coronavirus recovery package is expected to include a six-month ‘holiday’ from the charge on most homes to kick-start the market.

However, economists voiced alarm at the idea that the move could be announced, but not implemented until the Autumn.

Fears were raised that purchases would grind to a halt as people would simply wait in order save thousands of pounds.

Sources said there would not be any delay in the implementation of a stamp duty cut.

Treasury officials have been looking at a temporary six-month increase in the stamp duty threshold from the current level of £125,000 to an amount between £300,000 and £500,000.

But experts warned a delay until Autumn, as had been mooted, could put the housing market into the deep freeze.

Cops ID seven statue topplers

POLICE investigating the toppling of a statue of slave trader Edward Colston in Bristol have now identified seven of 18 people believed to have been involved.

The bronze memorial to the 17th century slave merchant was pulled down during a Black Lives Matter protest on June 7 before being dumped in Bristol Harbour.

No arrests were made at the time but officers reviewed CCTV footage to isolate images of 18 people they wanted to speak to.

Three of the 18 were identified before Avon and Somerset Police launched a public appeal, publishing an online gallery of 15 images.

Officers have now identified four more people – leaving 11 of the 18 still to be traced.

EX-MP ADMITS CHILD SEX OFFENCE

FORMER Labour MP Eric Joyce is facing jail and has been ordered to sign the sex offenders register after he admitted having an indecent image of a child.

The 59-year-old (left), who was MP for Falkirk in Scotland between 2000 and 2012, pleaded guilty at Ipswich Crown Court to the offence, which took place between 2013 and 2018.

Judge Emma Peters said the single 51-second film, found on a device, “depicts a number of children”.

“Some are quite young, one is said to be 12 months old,” she said. “Clearly a category A movie.”

She said Joyce, who appeared at court in person, “says he accessed it via an email which he says was a spam email”.

“At the time he was drinking heavily and he has now undergone work with a psychotherapist,” the judge said, as she ordered that a report be prepared before Joyce is sentenced on August 7.

Judge Peters warned the former shadow minister, of Worlingworth, Suffolk, that the offence crosses the custody threshold.

She said : “It’s going to be a question of whether it’s immediate or suspended.

“You will be required to acknowledging that you are immediately on the sex offenders register.”

POP BABE DUA LIPA: I'M SHY!

(Yes, we can see that, luv...)

By GRACE HOOPER
news@sundaysport.co.uk

IF this is Dua Lipa being "shy", we'd love to see her when she really pushes the boat out...

The singer left little to the imagination as she posed in a skimpy black thong bikini after jetting to St Lucia with boyfriend Anwar Hadid.

The New Rules star, 24, took to Instagram to share a set of sexy snaps of herself standing over a camera.

Dua captioned the teeny bikini snaps "I'm shy!" – but it's clear she's anything but.

She showed off her slender physique and tats in the photos, which included a shot of her wearing a bucket hat.

The couple had originally been holed up in an Airbnb in London, after she returned home from her Australian tour to find her flat flooded.

Dua recently shared a gushing tribute to her boyfriend as he turned 21 in lockdown, writing on Instagram: "Happy Birthday to my loveeee, my light n best goat daddy there is!!! Everything is better with you."

Speaking on Good Morning Britain, the hitmaker – who has just released her second album – said things are going well as she enjoys some rare downtime with Anwar.

MADGE SHOWS CRUTCH

DESPITE being at an age when she should be feeding her cats and knitting bootees for grandchildren, Madonna is still getting her teats and crutch out for the lads.

The pop legend has been recovering from a knee injury since March but she seems to be well on the mend.

And the setback hasn't affected her yearning to be in the spotlight as Madge, 61, posed topless for a mirror selfie posted to Instagram.

One fan said: "I still would."

Flasher told cops: I was expecting you

A SERIAL flasher exposed and touched himself inappropriately in front of women he targeted outside bus and tube stations.

Leslie Malcolm, 55, of Lewisham, south London, admitted eight counts of exposure at London Inner Crown Court.

On each occasion, Malcolm (above) would approach women in various places across Brixton and expose his genitals, often making eye contact as he touched himself inappropriately.

A number of victims came forward to police and Malcolm was arrested in Lewisham on June 1.

He told officers as he was detained, “you know, it’s not like I weren’t expecting you”.

Detective Sergeant Okikiola Okunola, from the Roads and Transport Policing Command, said Malcolm’s behaviour was “quite frankly disgusting and perverse.”

Malcolm will be sentenced at the same court on September 1.

Hot Marijke calls for ban on sex work

A TOP hooker has gone to court to ask for a ban on sex work until there is a coronavirus caccine.

Many sex workers in Belgium have been back in business again since the start of June – but one famed vice girl, known as Hot Marijke, stated that she will not resume her activities yet.

“I went to the Council of State to appeal the decision of the National Security Council,” she said.

“The Security Council has not listened to the advice of the experts. I want to change that.”

Sex work has been allowed in most places in Belgium since the start of June, when the National Security Council no longer forbade it.

A back-to-work protocol that sex workers have to adhere to was drawn up and approved by experts.

WHAT do Kym Marsh, Emilia Fox and Kate Lawler all have in common?

No, apart from “we’ve seen their busters”…

They all love CHEESE!

And it turns out that loads of celebs – from brainy Stephen Fry to astroboy Tim Peake to glamour babe Lana Parker – love the curdled dairy product.

And one man has made it his mission to discover and document celebs’ favourite cheeses.

Joe Bangles is becoming famous on Twitter for asking stars – repeatedly – what their favourite cheese is.

It’s been no easy task.

Some celebs have rudely ignored Joe’s polite request.

He’s even been accused of being flippant by asking about cheese during a time of coronavirus pandemic/statue-chucking/race riots/etc.

But Joe’s pressed on and he now has the world’s premier database of international celebs’ fave cheeses.

On his website – www.joebangles.co.uk – Joe explains: “After a bottle of whiskey, I asked Lord Alan Sugar what his favourite cheese was. Sugartits replied. 200+ celebrity cheeses later, the mission continues.”

Kasabian singer's 'intoxicants smell' as he assaulted ex

FORMER Kasabian singer Tom Meighan has pleaded guilty to assaulting his former fiancee Vikki Ager.

A child witnessed the assault on April 9 and contacted 999 to report a "domestic incident taking place", Leicester Magistrates Court heard.

Ms Ager was left with bruises to her knees, elbow, ankle and "a reddening around her neck".

The court was told Meighan "smelt heavily of intoxicants" as he assaulted her.

Meighan, 39, of Narborough, Leics, originally denied an assault had taken place.

But after watching video footage, he told police he could not watch it any further because it was "horrible".

Meighan (above) was given an 18-month community order and ordered to do 200 hours of unpaid work.

Kasabian announced on Monday that Meighan had stepped down from the band in order to deal with "personal issues".

On yer bike virus boost for Halfords

SURGING sales of bicycles during lockdown have cushioned the trading blow from coronavirus for retailer Halfords.

It said bike sales had risen 57.1 per cent in the 13 weeks to 3 July as people sought to avoid public transport and turned to pedal power during the pandemic.

As a retailer selling goods considered essential, Halfords did not have to cease trading because of the virus.

However, a big fall in motoring revenues meant that quarterly same-store sales declined 6.5% overall.

Halfords' share price initially fell as much as 9.5% on Tuesday before recovering some of its losses.

The latest figures cover the first three months of Halfords' trading year.

SCARF FACE: Amber Heard on way to trial

Libel trial hears how Hollywood stars Depp and Heard RECORDED their rows

UNDER COVER: Masked Depp arrives at court

FIGHTS: Depp and ex-wife (above)

By COLIN HURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

THE High Court yesterday heard explosive recordings of Amber Heard shouting at her estranged husband Johnny Depp as he denied beating her at the start of a three-week libel trial.

Hollywood star Depp's barrister David Sherborne read an extract from a 2015 tape in which Heard said to her husband: 'You got hit... but I did not punch you. I did not f deck you. I f was hitting you'.

Heard, 34, then went on to say 'you are a f baby', to which Depp said: 'Because you start physical fights.' Heard replied: 'You are such a baby. Grow the f up.'

Mr Sherborne said Depp has come to court "to clear his reputation".

He also argued that Depp's ex-wife has "invented these stories of serious violence" and that she was the "abuser" in the relationship.

Depp, 57, is suing the publisher of The Sun, News Group Newspapers, and executive editor, Dan Wootton, over an article which called him a "wife beater".

The article related to allegations made against Depp by Amber Heard that he was violent towards her during their marriage – claims he strenuously denies.

Mr Sherborne said. "He (Depp) is not and never has been a wife-beater.

"Indeed, he says it was Ms Heard who was the one who started physical fights, who punched or hit him. She was the abuser, not him. And the contemporaneous evidence fully supports that, as the court will hear."

Sasha Wass QC, barrister for NGN, said in a written opening note: "The defendants will demonstrate that the description of Mr Depp as a 'wife beater' is entirely accurate and truthful.

"They will show that the sting of the articles is correct – namely that the claimant beat his wife Amber Heard, causing her to suffer significant injury and on occasion leading to her fearing for her life."

Drugs

Ms Wass spoke of Depp's "well-documented dependence and excessive abuse of alcohol and controlled drugs which dated back to [his] time as a young man".

She said during the relationship, Ms Heard was "understanding and supportive" of all Mr Depp's attempts to rehabilitate himself and during the early period of his attempts to "kick his addiction" he was "appreciative" of her support.

But she said that on occasions, when he "failed to control his alcohol and substance abuse", Mr Depp "turned his rage and frustration on Ms Heard, berating her and launching into a variety of vile, crude and unreasonable accusations".

Ms Wass said: "On such occasions, Mr Depp's aggression typically descended into physically destructive behaviour, including the use of violence against her.

"His 'wife beating' behaviour included throwing objects at her, slapping her across the face, kicking her, gripping her around the throat and threatening to kill her.

"When sober, he was capable of kindness, charm and generosity. The side of character which he described as 'the monster' was jealous, controlling, violent and savage. It is these characteristics which qualify him for the term 'wife beater'."

She added: "The description of him in the online article in The Sun newspaper is correct, true and accurate."

The case continues.

TEEN FELT 'DISGRACEFUL' OVER COP DEATH

– court told

A TEENAGE driver who dragged Pc Andrew Harper to his death told jurors he feels "disgraceful" about what happened.

Henry Long, 19, was trying to steal a £10,000 quad bike from a house in Stanford Dingley, Berks, on August 15 last year.

Pc Harper, 28, had got out of his patrol car to chase after a suspect when his ankles got entangled in a tow strap attached to Long's Seat Toledo.

He was pulled along winding country lanes for more than a mile before he became disentangled, having suffered catastrophic injuries.

Within hours of the death of Pc Harper (left), Long and his two passengers – Albert Bowers and Jessie Cole, both 18 – were arrested.

Long initially denied involvement in the incident and told police in a prepared statement that he had been watching The Goonies and Fast And Furious DVDs.

Long, Bowers and Cole, from near Reading, have denied Pc Harper's murder but admitted conspiracy to steal the quad bike.

Long has also admitted Pc Harper's manslaughter, but denied intending to harm him.

Giving evidence at the Old Bailey on Tuesday, he accepted that he had killed Pc Harper.

Defence barrister Rossano Scamardella QC said: "You pleaded guilty to manslaughter – why?

Long replied: "Because I accept that I killed him from what I was doing, the way I was driving."

The lawyer asked: "How do you feel?"

Long said: "Disgraceful."

Long said he was unaware Pc Harper was attached to his car, adding: "If I was aware I would have stopped the vehicle, tried to save him."

Mr Scamardella said: "Did you ever have any intention to hurt him? Or kill him?"

Long said: "Not in any way."

Halle 'sorry' for interest in trans role

MILITANT trannies have forced Hollywood beauty Halle Berry to apologise after she spoke about her interest in playing a transgender man in an upcoming film.

The Oscar-winning star (above) said she had been preparing for the role before another project came up.

Berry had said she wanted to do a "deep dive" into "that world" and referred to the character as a woman.

It led to allegations of "misgendering" by touchy sorts, while others said any role involving a trans character should go to a trans actor.

Berry, 53, has now apologised and said she should not have been considered for the part.

She said: "I now understand I should not have considered this role and that the transgender community should undeniably have the opportunity to tell their own stories."

I would floss with those bikini bottoms given half the chance!

Online commenters were quick to hit their keyboards, with Olly121, from Oxford, writing on MailOnline: "I would floss with those bikini bottoms given half the chance."

Equally delightful observer "rapcbs", in Perth, Australia, said: "pop her on your rocket and pump it baby!"

Woman killed by July 4 shot

A 74-YEAR-OLD American woman died after being struck by a bullet which had been fired into the air during celebrations for Independence Day.

Paulette Thorpe was raced to a hospital in Durham, North Carolina, after being hit around 11pm on Saturday, July 4, and was pronounced dead a short time later.

Durham Police Chief Cerelyn Davis slammed the "small few" who "chose to put our community at risk by carelessly firing guns into the air" during otherwise peaceful celebrations.

He added: "Ms. Thorpe's death reminds us that we as a community must work together to prevent these senseless acts, so that no family suffers such a tragedy ever again."

So far, there have been no arrests.

kyla COLE

ORNY

MIDWEEK Sport ALWAYS HOME OF TOPLESS BABES

HORNY Kyla Cole knows how to get her own way between the sheets... and a man's not leaving her bed until she gets her needs met.

Kyla, originally from Czech Republic but who now lives in Lambeth, south London, says she loves to dominate a man in bed and isn't satisfied until the guy gives her exactly what she wants.

But Kyla, 28, isn't afraid to reverse the roles either and says it's a huge turn-on for her to be strapped to the bed while her lover takes control.

The 36DD babe said: "It totally depends on how I'm feeling, but most of the time I'd say I was dominant.

"I like being in charge and getting what I want, especially when it comes to sex.

"I'm nearly always on top and I can be quite bossy telling a man what to do to me, but that always goes down well.

"Talking dirty is a real turn-on, so I like to really get a guy's gears going by telling him where to lick me, touch me and how hard and fast I want it.

"It works both ways. He gets to enjoy being bossed around by a naked woman and I get to be pleasured how I want!"

HIKING BOOTY!

Rambler goes bare in National Park

By JAYNE FERGUSON
news@sundaysport.co.uk

A NUDIST is keeping social media fans in clover as she posts naked photos of herself hiking in the Peak District.

Posting to her 57,000 followers on Instagram, the self-styled Naturist Fitness Girl found a picturesque spot when she was exploring The Dark Peak.

It shows a view where she unearthed what she describes as some "hidden treasures" in the UK.

Her caption read: "The Dark Peak has a foreboding name but has some of the most stunning views.

"The beaten track is very well beaten, but take a few steps off of it and you can find yourself some hidden treasures."

Stunning

The Dark Peak is part of the Peak District in England, which is home to the most stunning hills in the UK.

It gets its name because the underlying limestone is covered by a cap of Millstone Grit sandstones with softer shale underneath.

The nudist enjoyed the view while wearing only a pair of hiking boots.

One of her 57,300 followers drooled: "If you go down to the woods today, you're sure of a BIG surprise!"

Another grumbled: "These photos really make me want to polish my wellies."

Cult leader killed wking member

THE female boss of a cult has been sentenced to death for burying a member in concrete after he was caught WANKING!

Evil Pham Thi Thien Ha ran the cult in Binh Duong Province, Vietnam and insisted members fasted for up to two weeks at a time, cut all ties with their families and refrain from all sexual activity.

So when the 32-year-old caught Tran Tri Thanh, 27, having one off the wrist after a previous warning for sneakily eating biscuits, she electrocuted him and buried his body in concrete.

Ha's mother and two other cult members who helped with the murders and burying the bodies were sentenced to up to 22 years in jail.

DOC PUT COCK IN PATIENT'S HANDS

A DOCTOR who rubbed his cock on patients to "help them sleep" faces 25 years in jail after he was found guilty of multiple indecent assaults.

Ali Khorami, 49, a GP who worked as a sleep technician, was accused of indecently assaulting five patients at his clinic in 2018.

All of the patients, aged between 16 and 29, had gone to the Woolcock Clinic in Sydney, Australia for overnight sleep studies, which involved them being connected to wires and being filmed as they slept.

Khorami was shown on CCTV repeatedly going into their rooms, unzipping his keks and placing his penis into the teenage girl's hand and on the faces of others.

Khorami had claimed his actions were performed with the patients' permission as a form of "tantric healing" which required their eyes to be closed.

TATTS OUT FOR THE LADS!

5-PAGE SPECIAL

By GRACE HOOPER
news@sundaysport.co.uk

A WOMAN who spent £66,000 transforming her look from head to toe broke down in tears after using foundation to cover up her tattoos to see what she looked like before the ink.

Amber Luke shelled out on 600 tattoos and had blue ink injected into her eyeballs during a procedure that left her blind for three weeks.

The 25-year-old also splashed out on breast augmentation, a tongue split, cheek and lip fillers, pointed implants placed in her ears and a Brazilian butt lift.

And when she covered up her inkings as an experiment for the TV series Hooked on the Look, she started sobbing!

Amber, from Brisbane, Queensland, said she thought she looked "terrible" after she used foundation to cover up her face and neck tattoos to see what she looked like before she transformed her look from a fresh-faced teen to 'dragon girl' – as she described how much she "hated" her old appearance.

Boom

She told the show: "I guess these days I'm just a different person to what I used to be.

"Life happens and you get judged. I'm a strong person and I can take it no matter what."

While not everyone who gets tatts may go as far as Amber, tattoos have never been so popular.

Although tattoo parlours are still locked down, they expect a boom when inkings come off the forbidden list.

So here are some other babes showing off their body art – and their busters, too…

It was a case of wrong time, wrong place for Amber Matthews. The 23-year-old had no idea when she went to visit a friend who needed help looking after her children that laughing killer Wendell Grissom would choose that house at random...

THE SMILING ASSASSIN

PLEADING FOR MERCY: Amber Matthews was shot while holding her friend's baby

'I hate where I'm at...if I could give my own life to undo it, I would in a minute'

MONSTERS OF DEATH ROW

THE WORLD'S MOST EVIL MURDERERS AND THE HORRIFIC CRIMES THAT SAW THEM SENTENCED TO EXECUTION...

WENDELL Grissom has never tried to deny his guilt.

He viciously slaughtered Amber Matthews, 23, and horrifically wounded her friend, Lauren Dreu Kopf in a home invasion horror.

Lauren and her children – one of whom was just five weeks old at the time – somehow survived the ordeal.

They still live with the mental scars, though.

Yet sick Grissom has seen fit to pen a series of letters from his cell on Death Row in Oklahoma moaning about how unpleasant it is behind bars.

In one blog post on the website Minutes Before Six, he grumbles: "My cell is four cement walls and a ceiling. The only window I have is in the door and it looks out onto the hallway.

By KOURTNEY KENNEDY
news@sundaysport.co.uk

"We're supposed to receive one hour of recreation every day but there's no yard here. You can't see anything because of the 30ft cement walls and the only opening is at the very top which allows fresh air and, if the sun's out, a little sunlight.

Alcoholic

"I've been in this cell since 2008. The only times I leave it are for visits or medical appointments."

Former trucker and raging alcoholic Grissom says he realises he's "not at summer camp" but adds: "We're still human beings. People don't treat dogs the way we're treated here.

"The food is always cold and nasty. They butcher horses here in Oklahoma and the meat goes to the prison system."

And who's to blame for the crimes he committed? According to Grissom, it's all down to the faulty human genes he was unfortunate to receive.

"Yes, I did some horrible things," he admits.

"And, even though I was intoxicated beyond any sense or reason, there's absolutely no excuse for it.

"But I didn't try to get away with what I did. Once I sobered up I felt so bad that I confessed to it all. The human race will never be perfect. It's in our genes to fail, be it in any manner.

"I hate where I'm at and I sincerely regret what I've done.

"If I could give my own life to undo it, I would in a minute. But the reality of it is, I can't."

The state of Oklahoma can, and will, take Grissom's life.

In the meantime, for the families of Amber and Lauren, no amount of repenting can ever undo his evil.

In truly excruciating courtroom testimony, Lauren revealed how Grissom had openly laughed in her face as she begged him not to enter her home.

Grissom shot Lauren twice, in the head and stomach, before leaving her for dead and turning his attentions to Amber.

He chased Amber around a bedroom despite her screaming, pleading with him not to kill her.

Then he shot her twice in the head – once as she held Lauren's shrieking five-week-old daughter.

When Grissom was eventually handed his death sentence in March 2008, Judge David Lewis was in no doubt that it was an appropriate punishment.

He said: "Wendell Grissom attempted to murder the homeowner and, surely believing he had succeeded, he executed her friend with two shots to the head.

Extreme

"He gave a detailed confession within hours of the shootings. He was able to recount the details of his recent activities and his life history leading up to the crimes.

"He also effectively admitted his guilt of murder at trial, hoping to avoid the extreme punishment."

Like many convicted killers, Arkansas native Grissom, now 51, had a poor start to life that eatured injury, learning difficulties and sexual abuse.

Terese Hall, a forensic psychologist and a professor at Oral Roberts University, revealed how Grissom had been sexually molested for several years, beginning when he was around nine, by an adult brother-in-law.

Hall said Grissom didn't tell anyone about the abuse at the time and remained reluctant to discuss it even as an adult as he found it shameful and upsetting.

Grissom's birth had been a difficult one and he'd been starved of oxygen during the delivery.

It led to severe speech problems as a child, for which he underwent years of therapy and was teased at school.

Grissom was described as "very shy, withdrawn and awkward" as a child as well as "anxious, depressed and socially isolated".

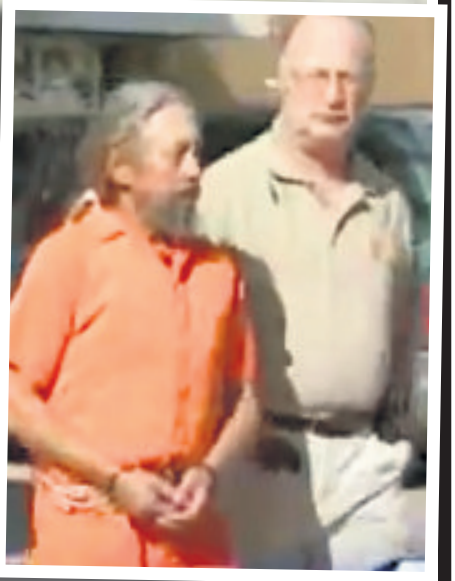
A series of motorcycle accidents only made matters worse, leaving him with further learning difficulties and causing him to quit school at 16.

HOUSE OF HORROR: Home of Lauren Dreu Kopf

IN FRIDAY'S

WEEKEND Sport HITCHHIKER FROM HELL

SICK: Wendell Grissom (above as a young man and, below, in prison) was looking for money to feed his addiction to booze and drugs.



Grissom drifted towards alcohol and marijuana between the ages of 17 and 19. Hard drugs soon followed.

By the time he was 20 he was burgling homes to pay for his substance abuse, spending years in jail because of it.

By 2002, Grissom had left prison and qualified as a commercial truck driver, following in the footsteps of his beloved father, Bobby.

Anguish

It was at this point that Grissom also met and married his wife, Barbara.

But the pairing was a marriage made in hell. Their "disastrous and chaotic" relationship, which ended in 2004, was the source of yet further anguish and depression for Grissom.

By early November, 2005, he was once again looking for cash to score drugs and booze.

As he drove his truck along the highway, he picked up a hitch-hiker, Jessie Johns, who ended up being implicated in Amber's murder.

Court records reveal: "The pair drove into rural Blaine County looking for a house to burglarise.

"Grissom ultimately parked his truck in the driveway of the residence of Matt and Lauren Kopf, near Hitchcock, in rural Blaine County. Grissom approached a sliding door at the rear of the residence and knocked.

"Lauren was inside her home that morning with her best friend, Amber Matthews, and her two young children, 18-month-old Rylie and infant Gracie Jo.

"Rylie was in her crib in the bedroom and Lauren was holding Gracie Jo.

"Amber answered the sliding glass door as Lauren turned in her glider chair to speak with Grissom.

"He asked Lauren if her husband was home. When she replied that he was at work, Grissom told her he would come back later.

"Amber closed the door but, seconds later, Grissom reappeared.

"Lauren handed the baby to Amber and went to the door again.

"At that point Grissom shot a pistol round into the large glass pane and shattered it.

"He then stepped into the residence and fired a second shot at Lauren, striking her in the hand."

In her own testimony, Lauren described the sheer panic of the situation.

She told the jury: "When he left, we only got a few words out before Amber said that man was at my back door again.

"Next thing, the patio door just shattered.

"I begged him to stop. I told him that I had kids, that he could have anything he wanted.

"He just laughed. I repeated myself and he laughed more."

Amber ran with the baby into Rylie's bedroom while Lauren fought with Grissom.

Pistol

The court records add: "While Lauren was fighting with Grissom, she begged him to take what he wanted and leave. He just laughed at her as he pulled the black pistol from his waist and put it to her head.

"She tried to grab at the weapon but he fired it. A bullet tore through her hand and struck the side of her head, fracturing her skull.

"Grissom stuck the pistol against her hip and fired again. The force of this shot threw Lauren on to the floor."

Thinking he'd killed Lauren, Grissom then turned his attention to Amber.

In heartbreaking testimony, Lauren said: "I heard Amber and my kids screaming.

"Amber shouted, 'Please don't shoot me', then I heard another gunshot."

Lauren, sick to the pit of her stomach knowing she was leaving her children in the house, somehow dragged herself to the garage. Grissom's accomplice, Jessie Johns, made his way into the house as Lauren got into Grissom's own truck and drove off in a bid to summon help.

The court files state: "Not far from her house, Lauren flagged down a trio of truckers hauling rock and told them her friend and children were dead and she had been shot.

"One of the truckers, himself a retired police officer, got into the truck with Lauren.

"He reported the shooting by phone to the Kingfisher County Sheriff's Office and drove Lauren to the hospital in nearby Watonga."

Grissom and Johns fled the scene on a red quad bike – which soon ran out of petrol.

Pleas

The pair were finally picked up by police drinking beer hidden in undergrowth near a local cafe.

Amber, meanwhile, was still clinging to life when police got to the property.

She tragically died during the emergency flight to an Oklahoma City hospital.

At his trial, Bobbie and Mary Grissom begged with the court to spare their son's life.

His lawyers made him out to be "a very sick, lost man" who was "extremely depressed".

But their pleas fell on deaf ears and Grissom now awaits his lethal injection.

Probe uncovers grisly trade...

KIDDIE BONES 'FOR SALE ON facebook'

BONE collectors have been using hidden Facebook groups to swap grisly human remains.

The social media giant is investigating claims that people are using private groups to buy and sell human body parts including skulls – and even a mummified six-year-old child.

By GRACE HOOPER
news@sundaysport.co.uk

While the company has a policy that bans the "buying or selling of human body parts or fluids", some users appear to have got round it by taking advantage of the site's private groups feature.

Many of the remains listed are claimed to be from archaeological or historical sites around the world.

Criminal

One seller claimed to have looted a human skull from catacombs in Sousse, Tunisia, which was offered for around £440.

The private groups were discovered by LiveScience, which spent 10 months investigating the listings and cataloguing the items offered for sale or requested by other users.

Legal experts say it is criminal under US and international law, and a threat to governmental and academic efforts to preserve artefacts at archaeological sites.

Among a wide range of listings, one user was attempting to sell a mummified six-year-old child for nearly £10,000, claiming it dated back to the 1700s.

A separate listing described an elongated skull claimed to have come from Peru, on sale for £9,000.

Illicit markets for human organs and remains have also quietly emerged on eBay and Instagram, prompting fears that social media is helping to popularise a formerly very rare hobby.

#HOT'N'HORNY

SEXY Suzi Star has a whole wardrobe crammed full of saucy underwear sets and kinky outfits.

And the blonde bombshell said she never sets foot outside the house unless she's wearing matching lingerie.

Essex beauty Suzi, 34, boasts pert 32D boobs and makes the most of her cleavage by dressing up in naughty outfits.

She said: "I do love my underwear – I'm forever buying new sets and sexy little outfits to spice things up in the bedroom.

"I love walking round town knowing I've got a hot little set of underwear on underneath.

"You have to really – you never know what might happen!

"At the back of the wardrobe I keep what I call my bedroom outfits.

"I've got a naughty nurse's one, as well as a little maid's outfit – and they always seem to send blokes wild when I put them on!"

JUSTIN DUNN'S ROOM 101

WHAT'S ANNOYING HIM THIS WEEK?

PROPPING UP THE LUVVIES? SHOVE IT UP YOUR ARTS!

HERO?... Magician Paul Daniels

WHEN I was a kid, I shared a bedroom with a brother who was into magic tricks and whose hero, I am ashamed to admit, was Paul "not a lot" Daniels.

That was his thing – and as the hapless sap sharing our personal space, I was for years his reluctant "audience".

It didn't matter how many times he buggered up wherever disappearing sponge balls were supposed to reappear, or his apparently solid-but-not-really metal rings, there I was – sat there, bored stupid, essentially a kidnap victim in my own bedroom.

When our eldest brother moved out into the brave new world where people could stay up later than sunset – in sunlight-short December – I understandably couldn't move into his vacated room quickly enough.

Aching

No more frigging "pick a card, any card" or "hang on – I'll do it again" performances for me. Oh no, sirree.

You may be staggered to learn that almost four decades later, my brother is still not a magician. The Butlin's berth is but an aching gap on his CV.

Instead, he has a grown-up job. He has to. He's got a missus, kids, pets and a mortgage to worry about.

Because this, you see, is what grown-ups do.

They might spend every night plunking away at a piano or guitar, or pulling knitted rabbits out of bobble hats, or doing panto or am-dram, but they know in their heart of hearts what the situation is.

They just have a hobby.

Fair enough, they hope they could one day make something out of it – but in the meantime, there is the not-so-small matter of bills to pay.

"The arts", as they call themselves, are collectively a group of my bedroom brother's conjuring dreams.

If they can make it, as a few do but most don't, the squillions will follow.

And if they don't, well, it's back to shelf-stacking or pulling pints. That's life.

So when chancellor Rishi Sunak (below) announced a whopping £1.7billion aid package for "the arts" on Sunday, you'd think the wannabe Bob Dylans and Kate Winslets of this world would rejoice.

Alas, poor Yorick, they did not.

It was "not enough".

It was "too little, too late".

A litany of "woe is me" whining from the many sour mouths of It Should Have Been Me.

Well, the thing is, Romeo, it wasn't you, was it?

And expecting every single person in the country to prop up your imaginary career while NHS and care workers are keeling over looking after your nan is frankly a big ask at any time, never mind a time like this.

But still our Rishi came up with a massive package to help maintain theatres, museums, artists and the rest of them – only to be airily dismissed by people who genuinely think dressing up as a Roman after childhood should be a protected way of life with special privileges.

No, it is not. Until you are good enough, it remains – no matter how much you wail otherwise – a hobby.

Et tu, Brute?

Too bloody right.

Wild boar warning in city park!

RESIDENTS in Moscow had to rub their eyes after spotting WILD BOAR running about in the city's parks.

But the boozy Ivans were not having hallucinations from the drink – the sharp-tusked porkers really HAVE moved into town.

And park authorities are warning locals to steer clear!

While an advisory note said the beasts are unlikely to attack a person, they warned that the animals are dangerous and capable of causing injury.

"If you meet a boar don't approach it and don't look it in the eye," the note said. "If you meet a whole herd stay away from the piglets."

The website gave no reason for the sudden appearance of the wild boars, but said they are capable of travelling quite long distances in search of food.

Coke plane crash lands £4m stash

A PRIVATE plane carrying 860lbs of cocaine worth £4million crash-landed on a motorway, sending the traffickers scrambling into woods to dodge police.

The Hawker 700, which authorities in Mexico had traced from Venezuela, came crashing down with its illicit cargo on a state highway in Quintana Roo in the Yucatan Peninsula.

Its crew fled into the forest before the military reached the scene, but authorities said they recovered the drugs nearby when they stopped a truck that had been loaded up with the plane's cargo.

Air Force officials said a military T-6C Texan plane was sent to intercept the narco plane and ordered it to land before it made the forced landing on the road.

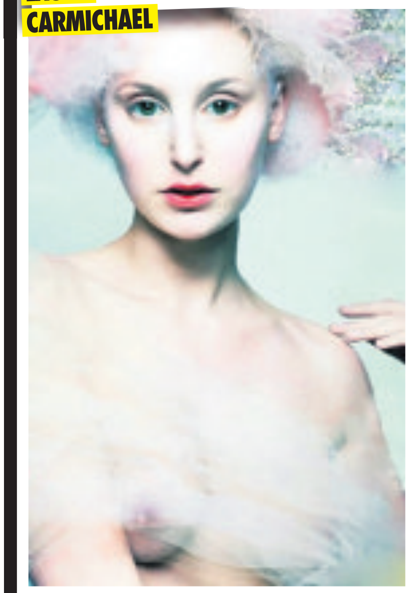
Two planes carrying guns and cocaine were also seized in the region on consecutive days back in January.

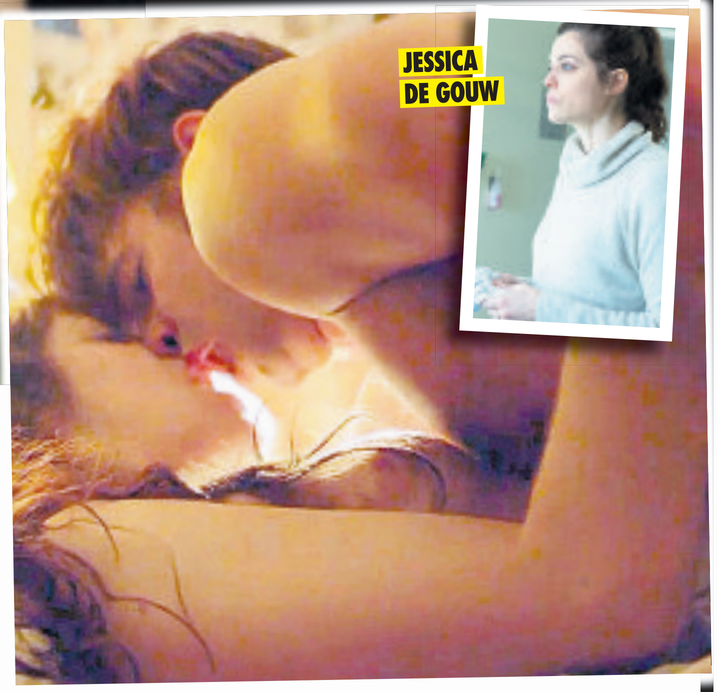
PHWOAR LITTLE SECRET!

The Secrets She Keeps – BBC1, Mondays, 9pm

Stars of new BBC drama are TOPLESS and NUDE

CARIBA HEINE
LAURA CARMICHAEL





By JAYNE FERGUSON
news@sundaysport.co.uk

NEW BBC1 series The Secrets She Keeps hit our screens this week.

The six-parter – which began on Monday – is set in Sydney, Australia, where two women have a chance encounter in a supermarket.

They are the same age and both are up the duff.

But the similarities end right there, as they lead totally different lives.

Grubby

Agatha – played by Laura Carmichael – works in the supermarket as a shelf-stacker.

While Meghan – played by Jessica De Gouw – is a "mummy blogger" on the rise.

Due to their contrasting incomes, Agatha lives in a grubby flat while Meghan is comfortably middle-class, so the two characters couldn't be more different.

But the actors playing them have something in common – they have both got their kit off in the past.

Downton Abbey star Laura, 33, has posed topless for a fancy photo shoot in Love magazine, while Jessica, 32, was also topless for the 2014 flick Cut Snake.

And co-star Cariba Heine, 31, peeled off for the cameras during the making of Blood Brothers in 2011.

Tune in on Monday nights at 9pm.

BEER GOGGLES RETURN!

THE return of pubs at the weekend also means that BEER GOGGLES are back!

Around two-thirds of people dating admit to having had "beer goggles sex", according to a new survey.

IllicitEncounters.com – the UK's leading affairs site – found 64% of men and 58% of women said alcohol had caused them to sleep with someone they had not initially found attractive.

Most men (65%) and women (67%) said drinking alcohol would make them more likely to have sex on a date.

And similar numbers of men (61%) and women (59%) said they were more likely to break lockdown rules after having taken drink.

A third of men and 26% of women also admitted cheating on a partner while out boozing.

The results are from a new poll of 2,000 Brits, taken after pubs and restaurants finally reopened after three months of lockdown.

The dictionary definition of "beer goggles" is the "phenomenon in which one's consumption of alcohol makes physically unattractive persons appear beautiful".

The study also found that most people dating (76%) will switch to bars and restaurants for dates now they have reopened, whereas parks had been the top location prior to UK rule changes.

The poll found that 68% of women and 82% of men like to drink alcohol on a first date, with the main reason both sexes hit the booze being it "helps to break the ice" – chosen by 72% of women and 87% of men.

IllicitEncounters.com sex and relationship expert, Jessica Leoni, said: "The beer goggles are definitely back on now the pubs have reopened and we will see a sex boom in the next few week as couples start dating properly again."

THE WORLD FAMOUS AGONY Page

Dear Lexi,

I'M a 40-year-old divorcee and I recently moved in with my girlfriend who's the same age. She has a 20-year-old daughter who is a real cracker.

The other night, as I was dozing in bed, I felt my bird's hand on my cock. Then I felt her kissing my helmet.

But suddenly I realised that it wasn't my bird sucking my dick – it was her lass!

Then her mum began to kiss me passionately. She edged her daughter out of the way and took me into her mouth and I shot my load.

I was soon stiff again and my missus hopped on it. Then they swapped over and I rode the pair of them into the early hours.

Is this normal?

KS, west Midlands

Lexi says…

WHO cares?… Enjoy it while it lasts.

Dear Lexi,

I'M a bloke and I have been a ladies' hairdresser since I left school. Recently, I launched a mobile service and about a month ago I went to a house for an appointment with a woman who was absolutely stunning.

As I was cutting her hair I accidentally brushed my groin against her and she smiled as she felt the stiffy I was sporting.

And she continued to smile as she started to rub my hard cock and then slowly unzipped my trousers.

It was my turn to smile as she took my eight-incher into her mouth and slurped on my manhood.

Then we moved upstairs and fked each other senseless for the next three hours.

Now she's a regular weekend customer and I'm wondering if I should start charging her for my extra services.

DB, Cheshire

Lexi says…

NO. Just accept it as a perk of the job.

Drunk hubby's best pal showed me a hard time

Dear Lexi,

ME and my husband have been married for 12 years, but we've hit a bit of a stale patch.

Anyway, we decided to celebrate the reopening of the pubs at weekend by meeting up with some pals.

As usual, my hubby got himself completely rat-arsed and crashed across a table full of drinks.

His best mate told me to stay put and then carried him outside and got him in a taxi back to our house.

I was giggling with my pals when my husband's mate returned to tell me he had tucked him up in bed.

I was grateful because he's a nice bloke whose wife has just left him.

We got chatting and then I felt his hand on my thigh. I reached down and grasped his stiffening manhood through his trousers.

We got a cab to his home, fondling and kissing each other all the way and when we arrived we got down to it.

I held his hard cock and cupped his balls before going down on him and licking his swollen shaft.

Then I dropped to all fours so he could enter me from behind.

After shooting his load, he very quickly recovered and proved himself a stud as he drilled me a second time.

I'm desperate to shag him again. What should I do?

TT, Liverpool

Lexi says…

YOU'VE got a big decision to make.

Older lover so good in bed – but so boring!

Dear Lexi,

I'M a 30-year-old hairdresser who runs my own salon and I've been dating a fella 20 years older than me.

We met in a bar one night, when I'd gone out with some of my girlie mates for a quiet drink.

There was a group of lads bothering us and this man stepped in and told them they were spoiling our evening.

The lads quickly went away and he offered to buy us a drink.

We chatted for the rest of the night and when he offered me a lift home I gratefully accepted.

So I asked him in for coffee and once inside I leaned over and kissed him on the lips and said thanks for gallantly coming to our rescue.

After sitting in the lounge and sharing a bottle of wine, his hand slipped under my skirt, touching the soft flesh at the top of my stockings.

Then he pushed my panties aside and it was obvious to him that I was turned on because I was dripping wet.

As he explored my pussy, I felt I would explode – his expert touch was delicious as he probed inside me and we both took it in turns to lick my love juices off his fingers.

Then I unzipped him and started to stroke his impressive hard-on.

He moaned with pleasure as I lowered my head and took him tenderly between my lips and sucked him slowly.

Straddled

Within a couple of minutes I could feel the pressure building up in his balls, so I pulled away and said we should go upstairs.

We undressed and lay on the bed. He licked my nipples and played with my massive breasts.

I then pushed him back on the bed, straddled him and slowly lowered myself onto his rock-hard cock.

I fked him slowly at first and then increased the speed until we both came together.

It was the best sex I'd ever had and afterwards we lay there for hours, cuddling and chatting.

I've been with him for six months now and I adore him very much.

But the problem is I want us to go out partying together – with all my other pals – but he says he likes to stay in and watch TV.

How can I tell him he's boring without hurting him?

KT, Essex

Lexi says...

HIS raving days are obviously behind him. You may have to move on.

Phone MILF gave me a filthy call!

Dear Lexi,

I RUN a little business selling and fixing mobile phones. I'm a 23-year-old single fella and don't have any problems pulling the ladies.

One afternoon, when I was on my own in my cabin, I was approached by a woman in her 40s who had a problem with her mobile.

She was a tasty blonde with big tits and a nice arse. I could tell she fancied me by the look on her face.

I went to the storeroom at the back of the cabin to get a replacement part for her phone.

But she followed me and asked if I would use my tools on her!

So I said, "Why not?" and as soon as I said that she took off her top to reveal her fantastic knockers.

Throbbing

Then she quickly pulled down my pants to reveal my six-incher standing to attention.

She wrapped her boobs around my cock and then began sucking on my throbbing bellend.

She licked my balls and shaft and just as I was about to chuck my muck, she stopped and begged me to take her doggy-style.

After a minute of pumping I unleashed the lot. Then, as if nothing had happened, she got up and picked up her phone and walked out of the shop.

I'd love to see her again, but I'm not allowed to access client's addresses or private details. What should I do?

JH, east Yorkshire

Lexi says...

HOPE she returns with more phone trouble!

Dear Lexi,

I'M a 30-year-old housewife and a couple of weeks ago I was seduced by an older woman.

My husband, who is a builder, was away when a woman in her 40s came knocking on the door.

I asked her in, wondering if she was upset with some work my husband had done.

But instead she confessed they had been having an affair for two years!

I burst into tears and after a few moments we fell into each other's arms for comfort.

Then she kissed me on the lips, saying she knew a great way to get even with him.

She started to flick her tongue in and out of my mouth and I felt myself becoming aroused.

I gave in to her as she slipped my bra over my shoulders and began licking my nipples.

I moaned with delight as she massaged my clitoris before going down on me and bringing me to several shuddering climaxes.

I found it exciting to lap at her pussy, especially when she screamed out in orgasm.

She's now dumped my husband, but I'm still seeing her.

Is this OK?

HD, Tyneside

Lexi says...

MAYBE you should dump him too.

ALWAYS HOME OF TOPLESS BABES

“MY biggest turn on is having spontaneous sex with a stranger. Some good, old-fashioned, no-strings wham bam thank you ma’am!

Less so drunken shenanigans with a random you’ve met in a bar.

I don’t think boozy sessions are always the best. You can’t remember them half the time and a lot of blokes can’t stay hard for long!

It sounds like something out of a cheesy 70s porn film, but I get really horny at the idea of flirting and getting it on totally unexpected with someone you come across... such as a hot repair man coming round!

But forget the corny ‘just here to check your pipes love’ lines.

I once had really intense sex with a guy who gave me a cheeky smile in the supermarket.

We got chatting and flirting and I just blurted out, ‘I live round the corner if you fancy a coffee’.

He jumped at the chance and within a few minutes of us entering my flat we were getting very naughty.

We were kissing and taking each other’s clothes off in the hallway. We didn’t even make it to the bedroom – he banged me over the kitchen table!

When you’re just after a bit of fun as the main course, no relationship drama as a side thank you, it can be wild!”

#HOT'N'HORNY

TOP-HEAVY Danielle Anderson loves daytime telly – because she's desperate to get her hands on Holly Willoughby's boobs.

The 30FF stunna, who is from Winchester, Hants, says that whenever she claps eyes on the This Morning host it gets her in the mood for sex!

Danielle, 25, said: "Holly gives me a bit of a tingle down there.

"I'm a big fan and I reckon she has the perfect figure. She's just so hot."

But despite being keen on Holly, Danielle would still be willing to take her job.

She said: "I think my love of having fun would really come across well on screen.

"Plus, just like Holly, I love squeezing into cleavage-popping dresses."

IT'S finally time to say goodbye to the creepy Crawleys of Downton Abbey and hello to the horny hotties of buxom Bottomley Manor!

For all you red-blooded fellas who love your porn but are bored to tears by dull Downton Abbey this is your lucky day.

Released last week, the UK's most highly anticipated adult movie is available exclusively through the Sport's adult partner Private Shops and, for a limited time they're offering readers another £5 OFF the already low, low price.

Down On Abby is a big budget, full length adult masterpiece starring porn legend Ben Dover and a cast of the hottest adult stars around. It will transport you to Bottomley Manor, home to the Lord Grabhem (played by Ben Dover), his wife (and 2014 AVN nominee) Jasmine Jae, and their two young promiscuous step-daughters, Abby and Fanny.

The Grabhems have invited the Stiffies to dinner and their staff, led by butler Smallc and footman Master Bates, hurriedly prepare to receive their honoured guests.

But during preparations some members of staff have their own ideas of how to make the night go with a bang! As dinner approaches it seems everyone's got more than fancy nosh on their minds. Mind you, there is plenty of noshing as well as lots of other filth that will even cause a crease in Carson's keks.

We see plenty of R18 DVDs at the Sport but this one is really something special and one you MUST not miss!

ALWAYS HOME OF TOPLESS BABES

HORNY Jeana Brock revealed she has the same taste in men as her best pal – because they once had a kinky THREESOME.

The 26-year-old star of the award-winning hit gangster movie Rise of the Krays admitted to getting down and dirty with her stunning friend after pulling the same bloke in a nightclub.

But Dover-born Jeana said the horseplay soon turned wild – when she got out her very own bondage WHIP.

The 32E brunette said: “I’ve always been close to my friends, I’ve known most of them for years.

“There have been some drunken snogs, but we’d never been any further than that.

“So when me and my friend Kirsty both fancied the same bloke in this club, the obvious choice was to go in together.

“Needless to say, he jumped at the chance and we had a steamy night together.

“We even had a tea break and a KitKat before we went back for seconds – only this time we spiced it up with a bit of soft S&M.”

BACKING: David Luiz

Lu beauty for new Gunners gloveman Emi

ARSENAL goalie Emi Martinez has leapt to the defence of David Luiz and Shkodran Mustafi.

Many critics think the heart of the Gunners backline is an accident waiting to happen, with the Brazilian in particular open to goal-making mistakes at any moment.

But Martinez — who is between the sticks while Bernd Leno is crocked — feels safe as houses behind the pair.

And he could have a point with the Londoners making it three clean sheets as they have won their past four outings in the Premier League.

The Spanish stopper said: "Now, we have structure, we have a gameplan, we have game management and the defence looks stronger and stronger.

"Believe me, David and Musti are top players.

"David has been at the top for so many years and it's the same with Musti.

Talking

"Sometimes when you make mistakes at big clubs you get punished.

"With Arsenal, people always seem to blame the defence for defeats. But I feel really safe behind them.

"They have experience and they are constantly talking through the whole game.

"When you play behind them, it's not like what people say. It's not, 'Oh, they make mistakes, they don't know how to play football'.

"I feel really safe, and now that we've kept three clean sheets on the bounce in the Premier League, people are starting to say that the defence is actually solid."

ROCK SOLID: Mustafi

SUPPORT: Emi Martinez

Further up the pitch, midfielder Dani Ceballos has become an important figure since Mikel Arteta took the reins.

And the boss would like to keep the on-loan Real Madrid star.

He said: "I am really happy with him.

"I love how much he likes to play football, the passion he puts into every training session and in every game.

"His celebrations, whether he's on the pitch or on the bench, he puts his life into it.

"He's evolving the right way and has become a really important player.

"He's been respectful, patient and now that he has the opportunity, he's grabbing it.

"We are talking to the club — obviously we don't own the player, it's not in our hands. The clubs need to have communication and see what we can do."

HANDBAGS AT DAWN: Son and Lloris had a spat

HUGO FOR EACH OTHER SAYS JOSE

Lloris and Son row pleases Tottenham boss

By PAUL THOMAS

JOSE Mourinho was happy to see Hugo Lloris and Son Heung-min almost come to blows on the pitch.

The pair squared up at half-time during Tottenham's 1-0 win against Everton earlier this week.

Mourinho thinks it would have been better to get the handbags out in the dressing room rather than in full view of the TV cameras.

Award

But he's happy that there's enough passion in the team to get so upset.

The Special One said: "A team of good boys, a team of nice boys, the only thing they can win at the end of the season is the Fair Play Cup. Something I have never won and have no interest in winning that particular award.

"You have to have a certain characteristics. I don't like a team without communication in a critical way.

"What happened should not happen on the pitch, it should happen inside the dressing room, but I promise you my winning teams we had big fights, big fights in the team.

"When I was arriving in the dressing room I saw the back of it, everything was over and they were hugging each other.

"In the last minute of the first half it ended with a Richarlison shot, Hugo thought that in that minute of the game attacking players should do a little bit more.

"Hugo was arguing with Son and Son with him, I wanted to make sure the players understood I was happy with that.

"When I told them that I think they realised that nothing was wrong."

Lloris also believes there was nothing wrong with having a little spat with one of his team-mates.

The French keeper added: "It just belongs to the changing room. Outside you can say whatever you want. What happened is just part of football sometimes.

"There is no problem at all, you could see after the game we were fine. I think to concede a chance a few seconds before half-time because we didn't make a press annoyed me but yeah, that's football."

Everton boss Carlo Ancelotti says his team is still fighting for a Europa League spot despite the reverse.

The defeat leaves them four points away from eighth spot which is likely to qualify.

The Italian said: "It is more difficult but we are still there.

Spirit

"We have three home games and two away, we have to fight until the end.

"Nothing is lost. We have to keep the fighting spirit until the end. We have to be focused on the next game and focus on three points.

"We competed until the end, we didn't concede a lot of opportunities, but we didn't have a lot of chances."

Wounded City too good for Magpies

TOON TALENT: Saint-Maximin

MANCHESTER City have somehow lost nine league games so far this season after their 1-0 reverse against Southampton.

The euphoria of their flattering 4-0 win over Liverpool last week has gone although they still look assured of second place in the table ahead of tonight's visit of resurgent Newcastle to the Etihad.

The Magpies have won their last three away games in all competitions and have scored 10 goals in the four games they have played since the resumption of English football.

Scored

Yes they were no match for City in the FA Cup quarter-final at St James's Park last month, but Steve Bruce will set his side out to defend but in Allan Saint-Maximin they have one of the inform players in the division and there are any number of suitors keeping a close eye on the young Frenchman who cost just £16.5m from Nice last summer.

City did have 26 shots against Southampton so on another day they might have scored three or four, but a more interesting statistic is that City have now made 120 changes to their starting XI so far this season – 33 more than the next teams (Arsenal and Chelsea on 87).

Pep Guardiola is likely to ring the changes again this evening.

Tips, News and Betting Offers

The first goal seems to be even more important since lockdown – United came from behind to beat Bournemouth but I cannot think of too many – and if City score first I expect normal service to be resumed. City to win to nil is 4/5 and that is the recommendation.

Wolves only shot on target against Arsenal at the weekend came after 17 seconds but they were bitterly disappointing and ultimately well beaten by the Gunners.

If they score first against Sheffield United at Bramall Lane tonight they will probably win, but 11/10 is far too short and the recommendation must be for the game to finish in a draw.

A goalless draw is certainly a player but 1-1 gets the vote at 6/1 with bet365.

Brighton entertain champions Liverpool in the late kick-off and the Reds have drifted out to 4/7 with Unibet.

The Seagulls were no match for an excellent Manchester United side at the Amex in their last home game but have done well since the restart.

Liverpool were, arguably, fortunate to beat Aston Villa on Sunday but I feel they will take the points back to Merseyside.

Liverpool to win and both teams to score is 11/5 and that is the recommendation.

Liability

Everton had their limitations exposed against a moderate Spurs side on Monday and I think Southampton – eight away wins already this season – will get a result at Goodison tomorrow.

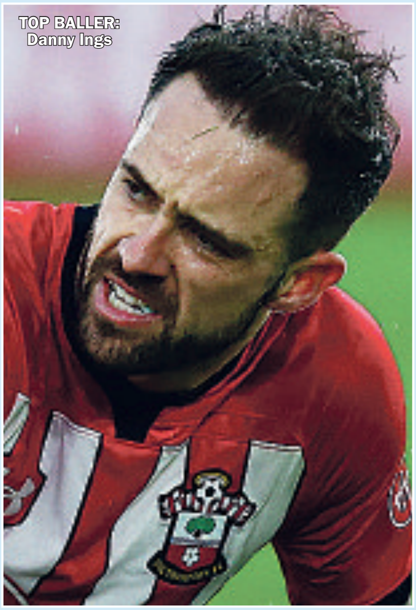
The myth that is Gylfi Sigurdsson was cruelly exposed at Tottenham but why does he still get a start?

It will not be easy to get rid of the Icelander and his £100k pw wages but he really is a liability who was only ever a Fantasy Footballer.

You would think Carlo Ancelotti as a once great midfielder himself would be able to see that quickly enough.

Southampton are 4/5 on the double chance – to draw or win – at Goodison and that is the recommendation.

FANTASY FOOTBALLER: Sigurdsson



TOP BALLER: Danny Ings

HODGSON ON HUNT FOR GOAL GETTERS

By ANDY MILLOM

CRYSTAL Palace boss Roy Hodgson says he's looking for a goalscorer to take his team to the next level.

The Eagles are safely in midtable despite having scored fewer goals than any other side in the league barring bottom boys Norwich.

Palace have managed to hit the target just 28 times in their 33 games. At the other end they have let in just 40 — which is less than Chelsea and Tottenham.

Christian Benteke continues to struggle and Jordan Ayew is also finding goals hard to come by.

With attacking talent like Wilfried Zaha and Andros Townsend in the side, hitting the target should be less of a problem.

And Hodgson is making a new striker his main priority when the transfer window opens.

It looks like he'll be buying homegrown talent rather than looking abroad.

He namechecked two English hitman who continue to bang them in at the top of the Golden Boot race — despite not being at the most fashionable clubs.

The former England boss said: "My simple answer is we'd look for a good one and a striker with a proven goalscoring record, that would be rather nice.

"Because if you look at the teams doing rather well this year, outside of course of the Citys and Uniteds who have quite an array of riches, you see Leicester and what Vardy does with the goals and how he has helped them along the way, and you look at Southampton with Danny Ings in particular.

"You are talking about two guys that everybody knows not only are they good players but when they are in your team there are going to be some goals.

ON HUNT: Hodgson

"We're aware of that. I'm not prepared at the moment to talk about specific profiles, we discuss that internally.

"So I can only give you the simple answer that we are looking for good strikers and ones who know where the goal is.

"Because we don't believe that we don't create chances or don't have enough possession of the ball in opposing team's half.

"It's just this year we haven't taken as many of the chances we have created that I or the team would like."

SANCHO DEADLINE

Dortmund want Jadon's future sorted sharpish

By JOHN ANTHONY

MANCHESTER United have been told they have just SIX WEEKS to make their mind up about Jadon Sancho.

Borussia Dortmund have set a mid-August deadline for any team to bid for the England forward.

And the Germans are sticking fast to their £100m asking price for a player they bought from Manchester City three years ago for just £7m.

That's some profit margin but Sancho has developed into one of the hottest talents in European football.

He has scored 20 goals in 44 appearances for Dortmund this season despite playing out wide — and he's thrown in another 20 assists for good measure.

United boss Ole Gunnar Solskjaer would love to bring Sancho together with Marcus Rashford and emerging talent Mason Greenwood in one of the fastest frontlines in world football.

Throw in Anthony Martial and the Reds would have the basis of a team that could challenge for the title again.

The sticking point is the £100m price. Dortmund are adamant that they won't accept a penny less for Sancho who has formed a potent partnership with Erling Haaland.

United have several players up for sale to bring in the cash — but that August deadline loos very tight.
